Freedom from Violence, Abuse and Neglect

You have the right to a life that is free from violence, abuse and neglect.

Violence and abuse is when someone hurts or hits you.

Neglect is when you are not cared for and your needs are not met.

Types of abuse and neglect

- Domestic violence
- Neglect
- Physical or emotional

Other types of neglect include

- Sexual and physical assault
- Financial
- Not providing services that have a big impact on your wellbeing

We do not allow abuse and neglect in our service.

We want you to speak to us if anyone hurts you or treats you badly.

We follow these steps to help keep you safe

1. Follow the rules
2. Train our staff

3. Keep records safe and private
4. Call the police if we need to

We will

- Listen to you
- Support you if something bad happens
- Keep people informed as you want
- Do regular safety checks and make changes if needed

If you are experiencing abuse you can call the National Disability Abuse Hotline on 1800 880 052.
