About Support Coordination

Your Support Coordinator can help you with:

- Getting the most out of your NDIS plan
- Options of support providers so you can choose the best mix
- Making sure your NDIS plan is working properly
- Setting up your MyGov account online
- Confidence and skills to look after your services and budget
- Talking with service providers about your service agreement
- Talking to service providers about the supports they will give you
- Talking to service providers about how much it will cost

Why choose someone from Bayley House Support Coordination?

- We have experience in disability
- We started learning about the NDIS early
- We supported our families to learn about the NDIS
- Strong commitment to you
- Strong commitment to your family
- We don't expect you to use Bayley House services
- We can support you to find other services that meet your needs
