

Short Term Accommodation (Respite)

Your home away from home

You will be assisted by our trained staff to live independently, learn skills and meet new friends.

Bayley House provides families with an opportunity to recharge and refresh while your loved one stays in one of our purpose-built homes and enjoys new friendships and experiences.

You may choose to have time there during the week, weekends or during holiday periods. We will work with you to select the best dates for your stay.

We will help you run through the Bayley House Short Term eligibility criteria and discuss your support needs to ensure that your needs are met. We will support you through the paperwork process and explain the costs and funding.

In our Short Term Accommodation homes, our qualified staff provide active support to ensure you are maximising opportunities to live a full and rewarding life.

When staying at one of our STA houses you will be supported:

- In all aspects of your daily life
- To participate in health and wellbeing activities
- To attend appointments
- Develop and maintain relationships with other guests

Eligibility Criteria

To access Bayley House Short Term Accommodation, you need to:

- Be aged 18 years and over
- Have an NDIS plan with provision for short-term accommodation, or are self-funded

Support

Bayley House is committed to fair and equitable access practice at our Short Term Services that are consistent with the NDIS and National Disability Services Act, Equal Opportunity Act 2010 and the Charter of Human Rights. We apply these practices in the management and allocation of resources. Bayley House will ensure that each person who meets the eligibility criteria and is seeking a service has access to our Short Term Services on the basis of the organisation's available resources.

Short Term Accommodation Fees

Short Term fees are set at a daily rate for each overnight stay. NDIS rates (see NDIS costing guide for Short Term Accommodation) apply for Individuals with an NDIS package. You can also self-fund your stay.

When our son attends Bayley House Short Term Accommodation it allows us to have a break from our daily role and recharge.

Whether we have a few days break or an overseas holiday we go with confidence that he is well supported by quality carers.

We see him return from his stay more confident and always happy.
